CIRCULAR

The Government of NCT of Delhi has been receiving complaints from many localities that some people buy liquor from the liquor shops in Delhi and start consuming the same in and around the vicinity of the liquor shops. Such people also create nuisance for the passerby, and the women and elderly in particular.

The Government has viewed such nuisance seriously, and hereby issues strict instructions to all agencies, including the private establishment owning a liquor shop, that they must pro-actively ensure that such incidents do not happen in and around their shops.

The MDs of Government Corporations in the retail trade of liquor may ensure that no consumption of liquor takes place in and around their respective shops. If any such incident is found, the Government may take the highest punitive measure under the Delhi Excise Act including cancellation of the licence of such vend.
